Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.

Just send us your name and address and you will receive a copy of every issue of the series without charge.

Next Sunday Mother's Day in all Virginia.

Addie Wright, colored, died at her home here Tuesday.

Miss Edna Turnes, of Lynchburg, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. R. O. Garrett, clerk of Cumberland county, was a visitor here last week.

James Flood has moved his shoe repair shop to his home in front of colored church.

Mrs. Lottie Bledsoe has been spending some time with her sick sister, Mrs. Roberts, in Nelson county.

Mrs. J. M. Buckham, who resides near Evergreen, is in Lynchburg hospital for treatment.

If this town is interested in clean sports, why not let the Appomattox ball team keep Appomattox on the map?

Tanlac builds up the weak, run down system and makes you feel strong, sturdy and well, as nature intended. Chas. F. James.

Brown & Smith give you a free guess at a pile of soap in their window. You may be lucky and get 50 bars of good soap.

If you are interested in suffering and afflicted, "have a heart" and get them out to Dr. Graham's Clinic Sunday. There are no charges of any kind.

"I feel twenty years young er," is what thousands have said after Tanlac restored them to health. Try it. Chas. F. James.

Dr. Simpson preached at Appomattox Memorial Sunday evening and held Quarterly Conference at Wesley Chapel Monday, where he also preached.

Wanted—Man to work on farm, married man preferred; steady work for a competant man either white or colored.
J. M. BUCKNAM,
Evergreen, Va.

Now the farmer is the busiest man of them all—Don't make the mistake and plant too much tobacco. Quality will count more than quantity.

Tobacco growers who have not signed the agreement will now have a chance to join and help their neighbors while helping themselves. All tobacco growers should have a hand in the success of the organization. Join now.

"Where there is smoke, there always fire," so when twenty million well-known men and women in all walks of life say Tanlac is a good medicine, there must be something to it. Chas. F. James.

Hon. R. L. Burke, Chairman of Agricultural Committee of Virginia Bankers Association has accepted an invitation to address a meeting of the Tobacco Growers Association at Naruna, Va., Saturday, May 13th.

Mother's Day will be observed at Memorial Methodist church Sunday morning. Special sermon by pastor, subject "Old Time Mothers. Special music. If there is any mother who has no way to come to church Sunday morning please notify Messrs. J. W. Flood, M. C. Smith or Mrs. S L. Ferguson and a way will be provided. Epworth League at 7:30 and preaching at 8 o'clock.

The very best game of ball of the season was played here Saturday, when Crewe played the home team a tie game—6 to 6. The Red House boys have joined hands with the Appomattox team and it is a crowd of fine fellows and our business men are making an effort to organize an Appomattox Athletic Association, which will give good games and fine clean, manly sport. The Fair grounds are being put in shape for a diamond and with the proper backing Appomattox will have a team that will keep the town on the map.

Notice

On Friday, May 12th, at 8 p m, there will be a meeting at the Court House for the purpose of organizing a ball team at Appomattox. Everybody who is interested in the welfare and progress of our little city is cordially invited to attend this meeting. Don't forget the date Friday night, May 12th at C. H.

Joseph Lucado

Mr. Joseph Lucado died at Johnson-Willis Hospital, Richmond, Va., on the 30th of April and was brought home that day. He was buried in the family burying ground at his home on Monday evening. His pastor, Rev. J. H Gordon, being out of the county, Rev. W. G Bates conducted the funeral services. A very large crowd of his kinsfolk and friends attended the funeral, and his grave was decorated with many beautiful floral designs.

Mr. Lucado was born December 14, 1878, and died in his forty-third year, leaving surviving him his widow, Mrs. Maude Lucado, and seven children. He had been a strong and healthy man until a few months ago, when he complained of some trouble with his head, which was not thought serious at first. He gradually grew worse until about two weeks ago, when he went to Dr. Tucker's Sanatorium, Richmond, Virginia, for treatment. He continued worse until he became entirely unconscious and was operated on at Johnson-Willis hospital last Friday. The result of the operation disclosed the fact that he had a tumor or abscess on his brain, which had bursted. He only lived a short while after the operation.

Mr. Lucado was born and raised in Appomattox county where he is well known and loved by all who knew him. He was a son of the late Elisha L. and Katherine Lucado and had a large family connection. He had been a consistent member of New Hope Baptist church for more than twenty years. He was a good citizen, good neighbor, kind and effectionate son, brother, husband and father. He will be much missed in his neighborhood and county, for he was no less than a splendid stalwart citizen, who was taken away in the prime of life, and with his passing, we are reminded that the unexpected is continually happening.

Card of Thanks

We desire in this way to thank our friends and loved ones for their kindness shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father Joseph Lucado, also for the many beautiful flowers.

THE VIRGINIA PAGEANT

A ferief of great moments in ye history of ye state RICHMOND May 22 to 28

Patrick Henry: I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death.

Hear Patrick Henry's famous speech in the Pageant Drama

IN a gigantic amphitheatre out in the open, seating 22,000 people—on a stage 150 feet wide—with a cast of 2000, the Pageant Drama of the VIRGINIA HISTORICAL PAGEANT is the most graphic and the most complete visualization of Virginia's history that has ever been or ever will be presented.

¶ See this wonderful play—see John Smith captured by the Indians. See the Wedding of Pocahontas. See the Massacre of 1662. See the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. See Patrick Henry—and hear his speech. See Lee accept the command of the Confederate Army—and see and hear the other dramatic episodes in this great play—which shows Virginia's History before your eyes.

¶ Prices of the seats range from $1.00 to $2.50 making it possible for every person in every station of life to witness this stirring drama.

PROGRAM FOR PAGEANT WEEK—MAY 22-28

MONDAY
Coronation of Queen of the Pageant—and Coronation Procession through Richmond.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre.

TUESDAY
Colonial Day—Historical Street Procession.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre. (Alexandria Night)

WEDNESDAY
Revolutionary and War of 1812 Procession.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre. (University of Virginia Night)

THURSDAY
Confederate and Floral Procession. Memorial Exercises at Hollywood Cemetary.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre. (Roanoke Night.)

FRIDAY
Spanish and World War Procession.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre. (Norfolk Night.)

SATURDAY
Greater Virginia Day Commercial Float Procession.
8 p.m.—Pageant Drama at the Amphitheatre. (Williamsburg Night.)

¶ All communications regarding the Pageant should be addressed to the Virginia Historical Pageant Association, Richmond, Virginia.

This sketch gives a vague idea of the bigness of the amphitheatre on Westbrook Avenue opposite the entrance to Bryan Park—where the Pageant Drama will be presented. It is built on a 40 acre plot of ground. Seats are prepared for 22,000 people. Traffic can be easily handled—as there should be no congestion and no discomfort.
